Public Notice to Filers and the Public

E-Filing System Migration: CTrack Closes next week and CourtPro Opens on Monday, August 31, 2026

CTrack is shutting down and a new e-filing system, CourtPro, is taking its place. E-filing in CTrack closes at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, August 27, 2026. CourtPro opens at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, August 31, 2026. Between those times, civil documents can be filed in paper at the counter.

Plan ahead. A filing deadline that falls during the shutdown still applies, so bring paper filings to the counter on Friday, August 28, 2026.

Filing during the shutdown

- The counter accepts civil filings on paper on Friday, August 28, 2026, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- Each paper filing receives Friday's date and time stamp, which preserves the filing date and time.
- The office docketed and processes those filings on or after Monday, August 31, 2026.

Searching for documents

- Use CTrack for searches through 12:00 noon on Friday, August 28, 2026.
- After 12:00 noon on Friday, August 28, 2026, CTrack and CourtPro are both unavailable.
- CourtPro logins and registration(s) become available at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, August 31, 2026, online.

Getting into CourtPro

- Every e-filer needs to register as a new user in CourtPro online. CTrack credentials do not carry over to CourtPro.
- CourtPro opens for registration online and filing at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, August 31, 2026.
